Overview

- On Friday, September 13, 2013, at 9:08 p.m., RPD Communications received a 9-1-1 call from the location asking for officers to respond to a suicidal subject.
- Family members (daughter and wife) spoke to RPD Communications personnel describing Hector Jimenez as being armed with a knife. They explained that he cut himself and that he swung the knife at them.

Riverside Police Department

Overview

- Officers arrived at the location and found Jimenez seated in the front yard with a knife in his right hand.
- One of the officers was deployed with a less lethal shotgun.
- The sergeant at the scene spoke with Jimenez, directing him to drop the knife.

Riverside Police Department

Overview

- This conversation between the sergeant and Jimenez lasted for several minutes. On multiple occasions, the sergeant directed Jimenez to drop the knife.
- Jimenez moved the knife about his face, throat and arms. He told the officers he had cancer and that he wanted to die.
- The sergeant at the scene deployed an officer with a TASER to the front yard.

Riverside Police Department

Overview

- As the officer with the TASER removed the TASER from the holster, Jimenez stood up with the knife in his hand and lunged toward the two closest officers.
- Three of the officers fired their handguns at Jimenez and one officer fired the less lethal shot gun.
- Jimenez died at the scene.
